Re: Alexander Williams v. City of New York, et al.,
19 Civ. 3347 (LJL) (JLC) ¹

Your Honor:

I am a Senior Counsel in the office of James E. Johnson, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, and one of the attorneys for defendants in the above-referenced action. Defendants respectfully request an additional 14-day extension of the deadline to file their summary judgment motion, from February 12, 2021, up to and including February 26, 2021, because defendants are still awaiting the deposition transcript of plaintiff. This is defendants' second request for an extension of the briefing schedule. Because plaintiff is presently incarcerated, he could not be reached expeditiously to obtain his consent to this request.

By way of background, Plaintiff is a pre-trial detainee in the custody of the New York City Department of Correction. Plaintiff alleges that between January 20, 2019 and July 14, 2020, defendants, correction officers at Manhattan Detention Center ("MDC"), opened and read his outgoing and incoming mail, denied him access to the law library, ignored and did not process his grievances, denied his ability to timely mail summonses and complaints to correction officers he was suing in a state court proceeding, retaliated against him, used excessive force against him by spraying him with a chemical agent, and denied him adequate medical care. (See Williams I, Compl., pp. 4-5; Williams II Compl., pp. 4-5, 7-11; Williams III Am. Compl. 4, 6-14, and 21.)

¹ This matter was originally docketed as 20-cv-3992. However, on or about August 27, 2020, this matter was consolidated into the matter bearing docket number 19-cv-3347.

On January 11 and 12, 2021, defendants conducted plaintiff's deposition. Defendants were told that they would receive the deposition transcript by January 26, 2021. Thereafter, on January 31, 2021, defendants were informed that they would receive the deposition transcript on February 2, 2021, at the latest; however, to date, defendants have not yet received the deposition transcript. While this office is diligently following up with the court reporting agency concerning the outstanding transcript, at this juncture, defendants are not in a position to draft a comprehensive motion for summary judgment without plaintiff's transcript. Moreover, defendants submit that plaintiff would likely not be in a position to adequately oppose any such motion without access to the transcript either.

As such, defendants respectfully request a 14-day extension of the deadline to file their summary judgment motion, from February 12, 2021, up to and including February 26, 2021. To the extent that Your Honor is inclined to grant this request, defendants also request an adjustment of the remainder of the briefing schedule as follows: (1) Opposition Papers due March 29, 2021; and (2) Reply Papers, if any, due April 19, 2021.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Qiana Smith-Williams /s
